1. Explain with reference to the context any three of the following passages: 15

- (a) Tyger! Tyger! Burning bright in the forest of the night what immortal hand or eye could frame thy fearful symmetry?
- (b) Behold her, single in the field you solitary high-land lass? Reaping and singing by herself stop here or gently pass!

(c) Where are the songs of spring?

Ay, where are they?

Think not of them, thou hast thy music too while barred clouds bloom the soft dying day. And touch the stubble plains with rosy hue...

(d) I was never a fighter, so one fight more.

The best and the last!

I would hate that death bandaged my eyes and forbore.

And bade me creep past.

(e) Children love to listen to stories about their elders, when they were children, to stretch their imagination to the conception of a tradition any great uncle or grandma who they never saw. It was in this spirit that my little ones crept about one the other evening to hear about their great - Grandmother field, who lived in a grant house in Norfolk.

(f) Players are the abstracts and brief chronicles of the time, the monthly representatives of human nature. They are the only honest hypocrites. Their
